EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alan Bornstein on September 28 2006.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

2.1 Claim 13, line 2: "from 50 to 250C, more preferably at a temperature of from 100-200C." has been replaced with --from 50 to 250<sup>0</sup>C, more preferably at a temperature of from 100-200<sup>0</sup>C.--

2.2 Claims 15-18 have been cancelled without prejudice to their continued prosecution in a continuation application.

In the abstract, lines 3-6 of the paragraph (see amended abstract dated 07/24/06):

The sentence "A composition for use in the aforementioned method which comprises an effective amount of a blocked cross-linking agent for cellulose, the cross-linking agent being thermally activated." has been deleted.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims in their present amended forms have overcome the prior art of record because none of them teaches, discloses or suggests a method of treating garment by crosslinking cellulosic material in the manner as those specifically recited, in particular the features of a bi-functional polycarboxylic crosslinking agent being thermally activated that comprises the recited blocking alcohol or imide. In the art of fabric treatment, Soane et al., a newly found art, teach the feature of a bi-functional crosslinking carboxylic agent and Mooney teach the feature of a polycarboxylic crosslinking agent that is thermally activated. However, Soane et al. and Mooney et al. fail to teach the specific alcohol or imide of the present invention. Accordingly, the claimed invention, as a whole, would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the textile treatment art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
